FROM

THE CHIEF MEMBER OF THE STATE COUNCIL,

Kishangarh.

TO

J. H. THOMPSON, ESQUIRE, I.C.S.,

SUPERVISOR, KISHANGARH STATE,

Jaipur.

Dated Kishangarh the 31st July 1939.

SIR,

I beg to submit the Annual Report on the Administration of the Kishangarh State for the Raj Sambat year 1994 (corresponding to November 1937 to October 1938).

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your Most Obedient Servant,

(Sd.) KESARI SINGH,

RAO SAHIB, B.A., LL.B.,

Chief Member of Council, Kishangarh.

Administration Report of the Kishangarh State for the Sambat year 1994 (1st November 1937 to 31st October, 1938.)

CHAPTER I

General and Political

(A) INTRODUCTORY

The Kishangarh State lies almost in the centre of Rajputana between 25°-49' and 26°-59' N and 74°-40' and 75°-19' E. It has an area of 858 square miles. Except for small isolated patches the territory consists of two narrow strips which together are 80 miles in length from north to south and have a breadth varying from 20 miles in the centre to about 2 miles in the southern extremity. The northern portion is sandy and is crossed by three parallel ranges of the Aravalli Hills. The southern portion is generally flat and fertile. During and immediately after the rains, a few streams contain water, while for the rest of the year all of them present sandy beds. The population figure according to the census of 1931 is 85,744 souls. The annual average of gross revenue excluding Jagir lands is in round figures Rs. 7,50,000/-. Politically the State forms part of the charge of the Resident at Jaipur. The Maharajadhiraj of Kishangarh is entitled to a salute of 15 guns. The State pays no tribute to the Imperial Government.

The Ruling family are Rathore Rajputs of the House of Jodhpur having marriage alliances with Udaipur, Jaipur, Bundi, Alwar, Sirohi, Jaisalmer, Dungarpur, Partabgarh, Jhalawar, and Cutch. The present Maharajadhiraj who is the 18th ruler of the State is His Highness Umdae Rajbai Buland Makan Maharajadhiraj Maharaja Dikshit Yagyanarainsinghji Bahadur. He was born on the 26th January 1896 and was educated at the Mayo College, Ajmer, where he passed the Diploma Examination standing second in order of merit. He succeeded to the Gaddi on the 24th November 1926.

CHAPTER II.

ADMINISTRATION OF LAND.

For Revenue purposes the State is divided into five Parganas or Hukumats. They are Rupnagar, Karkeri, Kishangarh, Arain and Sarwar.

Revenue Machinery.

Except in Kishangarh the Hakim exercises civil and criminal powers also. The central controlling authority in all Revenue matters is the Revenue Member of Council.

Rai Sahib Purohit Shridharji, who was Revenue Member from the 1st November to the 14th December 1937, died on the 15th December 1937. The Darbar place on record their high appreciation of the valuable services rendered by him to the State in various capacities during his life. Mehta Sobhagsinghji, who was working as Assistant Revenue Member, was appointed to work as Acting Revenue Member from the 22nd December 1937, and he held charge to the end of the year. Mehta Narayandas, B.A., who was Extra Revenue Assistant till the 15th December 1937, was Revenue Assistant from the 16th December, 1937 to the 31st October 1938. The post of Extra Assistant was then brought under reduction.

Personnel.

The Hakims of Hukumats were as under :—

Mal Sadar Kishangarh—Mahnote Sajjansingh.

Sarwar—Purohit Rewatsingh.

Arain—Pandit Durgaprasad.

Rupnagar—Mahnote Mukansingh.

Karkeri—Mahnote Madansingh.

Parganas.

The following table shows the area in square miles comprised in each parganah. The population figure is taken from the Census of the year 1931. The number of Khalsa and Jagir villages together with the Tehsils in each district also appear in this statement.

Court of Wards.

Thakur Sanwat Singhji of Kotri was the Deputy Manager of the Court of Wards throughout the year.

At the beginning of the year 135 Jagir estates were under management and during the year 16 more estates were added bringing the total to 151 representing 175½ horse Jagir. Of these 9 estates comprising 10½ horse Jagir were released leaving 142 estates comprising 165 horse Jagir under the management of the Court of Wards at the end of the year. The Deputy Manager toured in the districts for 10 days.

Patta Section.

This section is under the supervision of the Revenue Department. Munshi Devinarainji was the officer. Drafts for 150 Pattas were prepared and 66 Pattas were given.

Muafiyat.

The Department of Muafiyat which was established two years ago, is working well. Out of 1376 files, 91 were decided and 294 were sent to Tawarikh and Patta Section, leaving a balance of 1184.

Panchayat Boards.

There are 16 Panchayat Boards in the State viz., at (1) Madanganj (2) Bandarsindri (3) Didwara (4) Barna (5) Karkeri (6) Rupnagar (7) Singara (8) Fatehgarh (9) Sampla (10) Hingonia (11) Katsura (12) Gothiana (13) Lamba (14) Akoria (15) Dhasuk and (16) Dadhia.

Agricultural Farm.

The Agricultural Farm was established last year. It is under the supervision of the Revenue Department.

Thakur Ranmal Singhji was the Officer and Kanthariya Harishchandra, who received training in Agriculture in the Jat Intermediate College Lakhaoti, was the Assitant Officer of the Agricultural Farm.

Malwa Cotton seeds were sown in village Barna, as an experiment, and the outturn was quite satisfactory. Ground nuts and potatoes were sown in Pargana Rupnagar but the soil was not found suitable.

CHAPTER III.

LEGISLATION AND PROTECTION.

The laws of the State are to a great extent adaptations of the codified law in British India. The Criminal law and Procedure follow very closely the Indian Penal Code and the Code of the Criminal Procedure.

Legislation.

Kunwar Gangasingh was Buxi Fanj throughout the year, and he held charge of the Madan Paltan, Madan Risala, and the State Band.

Military Force.

The Paltan consists of (1) Umedwars, who get grain allowances for themselves and their families and (2) Sepoys, who get salaries in cash.

The Risala consists of 1 officer, 2 Dafedars, 9 non-commissioned officers, and 32 Sowars including 1 Trumpeter and 2 farriers. The followers of the Risala number 12.

The expenditure under the head of Paltan was Rs. 23,558/- while the amount spent on the maintenance of the Madan Risala and the Band was Rs. 13,955/-.

Purohit Shrikrishnadass B.A., LL.B., was Superintendent of Police upto the 14th March 1938. From the 15th March 1938 Govindasot Sardarsingh B.Sc., LL.B., was appointed Superintendent and he held charge to the end of the year. Lala Onkarsingh, who has been trained at Saugor and Ajmer and was previously appointed Kotwal, was appointed Deputy Superintendent and Inspector of Police on the 24th December 1937.

Police.

The Police Force during the year consisted of 1 Superintendent, 1 Deputy Superintendent and Inspector of Police, 7 Kotwals, 4 Thanadars, 9 Head Constables, 11 Jamadars, 103 Constables, 40 Chowkidars, 7 Sowars and 2 Shutar Sowars.

The budget allotment was Rs. 24,653/- whereas the amount actually spent was Rs. 20,323/-.

The relations with the border Police were friendly.

There were on the register of Criminal Tribes 41 Minas and 212 Baoris. They earn their livelihood by agriculture and manual labour. Their movements are watched and controlled by the Superintendent of Police in accordance with the Criminal Tribes Regulations.

Criminal Tribe

Finger impressions of 100 convicts were taken and sent to the Central Bureau, Ajmer. The number of search slips issued was five.

Finger Impression work

Annexure No. VI shows the working of the Police in the Kishangarh State and Annexure No. VII gives details of property stolen and recovered.

Dr. Amritlal Bapna M.B., B.S., was Superintendent Jail throughout the year, and Lala Durgaprasad was Jailor from 1-11-1937 to 31-8-1938. He was succeeded by M. Humayun Akhtar.

Central Jail.

At the beginning of the year there were 50 prisoners, who were males; 70 men and 4 women were admitted during the year, thus bringing the total to 124, of whom 120 were men and 4 women. Of these, 71 were released and two escaped from the Jail. Thus at the end of the year there were 51 prisoners.

The income from the sale of fruits and vegetables grown in the Jail garden was Rs. 254/- as against 253/- of last year.

The Jail Industry Department worked as usual and the net profit amounted to Rs. 296/- as against Rs. 384/- of last year.

The charges on account of the establishment and prisoners' clothing came to Rs. 3,031/-. The earnings amounted to Rs. 3,554/4/- representing the wages of 18956 units. Annexure No. VIII shows the number of persons confined in the Jail.

Courts of
